

Unlocking Opportunities: Leveraging Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2023/1676

25 April 2024 online

Objectives:

- To lay the foundation for the development of comprehensive guidelines for utilising Delegated Regulation (EU) 2023/1676.
- To examine optimal strategies for utilising the Delegated Regulation and to discuss the current challenges encountered by managing authorities and project promoters in its implementation. This includes a particular focus on Housing First initiatives and navigating the intricate landscape of long-term care for individuals with disabilities and children living in poverty.

Key information

Date: 25 April 2024

Time: 9.00 - 12.00 (CEST)

Agenda

Time (CEST)	Description
9.00–9.15	Introduction and Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Agnė Buividavičiūtė, Coordinator of the CoP on Social Inclusion– Neringa Poškutė, Head of the European Competence Centre for Social Innovation
9.15–9.35	Information Session on Delegated Regulation (EU) 2023/1676 During this session, we will feature a presentation on Delegated Regulation (EU) 2023/1676, focusing on defining unit costs, lump sums, and flat rates. Additionally, we will explore financing options not linked to costs for expenditure reimbursement. <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Karen Van De Putte, DG-EMPL, European Commission
9.35–9.55	Q and A Session
9.55–10.15	Interview Session: Introduction to Developing Comprehensive Guidelines for Utilising the Delegated Regulation <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Katrijn Dekoninck, Expert of the CoP, Leading the Preparation of Guidelines for Utilising Delegated Regulation
10.15–11.45	Exploring the Potential of Delegated Regulation: Virtual Project Exercise Since the Delegated Regulation is new, there are not many proven methods to share yet. Instead, we will theoretically explore the potential of the Delegated Regulation by looking at virtual implementing study cases that will be provided by some of our members. This exercise will be the occasion to discuss possible concrete uses of the regulation. It will give the opportunity to the participants to confront their understanding of this text with potential practical uses of it, and to raise their challenges in using it for their own programs.
11.45–12.00	Closing Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Mathilde Prilleux, DG-EMPL, European Commission– Agnė Buividavičiūtė, Coordinator of the CoP on Social Inclusion